

The President of the Catholic Bishops Conference of Nigeria and the metropolitan Archbishop of Provincial See of Jos, Most Rev. Ignatius Ayau Kaigama was recently honoured with an Award of a Doctorate Degree (Honoris Causa) in Public Administration during the 3rd Convocation ceremony of Godfrey Okoye University on December 5th, 2015 in Enugu state of Nigeria.

The Archbishop, who is also the Chancellor of the university, has been championing the course of dialogue and peace, nationally and internationally, thereby bridging the gap that exists between peoples, notwithstanding the political and ethnic and religious differences that seem to be the determining factor for both the government and private sectors in decision and policy making.

Kaigama receives the Award from the V.C.

Kaigama with the Emir of Wase, His Royal Highness, Alhaji. Dr. Mohammed Haruna Sambo,

Award of Patron of Dialogue by the Students.

Kaigama with NUC Sec. Prof Julius Okojie

Senator Gilbert Nnaji & Archbishop Kaigama, both Doctorate Degree Awardees

The Awarded with the University Administration